RECITALS

A. On or about February 24, 2016, Faith Delige was injured in an incident in or near Fayetteville, Cumberland County, North Carolina. Claimants allege that the incident and resulting physical injuries arose out of certain alleged negligent acts or omissions of the Defendant, and have made a claim seeking monetary damages on account of those injuries.

B. Insurer is the liability insurer of the Defendant, Cumberland County Board of Education, and as such, may be obligated to pay any claim made or judgment obtained against the Defendant which is covered by its policy with the Defendant.

C. The parties desire to enter into this Settlement Agreement in order to provide for certain payments in full settlement and discharge of all claims which have, or might be made, by reason of the incident described in Recital A above, upon the terms and conditions set forth below.

AGREEMENT

The parties agree as follows:

1 Release and Discharge.

1.1 In consideration of the payment set forth in Section 2, Claimants hereby completely RELEASE and FOREVER DISCHARGE Defendant, the Insurer, and all other persons, employees, agents, corporations or other entities, from any and all past, present, or future claims, demands, obligations, actions, causes of action, wrongful death claims, rights, damages, costs, losses of service, expenses and compensation, of any nature whatsoever, whether based on a tort, contract or other theory of recovery, which the Claimants now have, or which may hereafter accrue or otherwise be acquired on account of, or may in any way grow out of the incident described in Recital A above, including, without limitation, any and all known or unknown claims for bodily and personal injuries to Claimants, or for any future wrongful death claim of Claimants' representatives or heirs, which have resulted or may result from the alleged acts or omissions of the Defendant.

1.2 This Release and Discharge shall also apply to Defendant's and Insurer's past, present and future officers, directors, stockholders, attorneys, agents, servants, representatives, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, partners, predecessors and successors in interest, and assigns, and all other persons, firms, or corporations with whom any of the former have been, are now, or may hereafter be affiliated.

1.3 This Release, on the part of the Claimants, shall be a fully binding and complete settlement among the Claimants, the Defendant and the Insurer, and their heirs, assigns, and successors.

1.4 The Claimants acknowledge and agree that the Release and Discharge set forth above is a General Release. Claimants expressly waive and assume the risk of any and all claims for damages which exist as of this date, but which the Claimants do not know or suspect to exist, whether through ignorance, oversight, error, negligence, or otherwise, and which, if known, would materially affect Claimants' decision to enter into this Settlement Agreement. The Claimants further agree that the Claimants have accepted payment of the sums specified herein as a complete compromise of matters involving disputed issues of law and fact. Claimants assume the risk that the facts or law may be other than Claimants believe. It is understood and agreed to by the parties that this settlement is a compromise of a doubtful and disputed claim, and the payments are not to be construed as an admission of liability on the part of the Defendant, by whom liability is expressly denied.

2 Payments.

In consideration of the release set forth above, the Insurer, on behalf of the Defendant, agrees to pay to the individual(s) named below ("Payee(s)") the sums outlined in this Section 2 below:

2.1 Payments due at the time of Settlement as follows:

All sums set forth herein constitute damages on account of physical injuries and sickness, within the meaning of Section 104(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

5 Governing Law.

This Settlement Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of North Carolina.
